Hotel Le-Meridian, New Delhi

In order to give the pioneers of Real Estate the merit and acknowledgement they deserve, The Real Estate Excellence Awards were announced on May 27 at Hotel Le-Meridian, New Delhi.

REE - 2007

The REE Awards aim to acknowledge individuals, builders, and developers for their meritorious and selfless service in the development of Real Estate.

The awards looked to acknowledge builders and developers for their outstanding achievements in developing infrastructure facilities and promoting state of art designs and architecture. In the initial two days of this event, some of the renowned groups of Real Estate developers and builders, famous businessmen, Architects, Interior Designers, and the major Construction houses have shown the USPs of their launched and forthcoming projects.

The selection of winners has been done by a jury of 6 individuals who are pioneers in their respective areas, on the basis of a survey done by the AC Nielson through SMS,s and e-mails and after evaluating the nominees' reputation and the work done for the REE Awards - 2007.

REE Awards were conferred to individual builders and developers for their meritorious and selfless services in the development of Real Estate. These types of awards are given to them for not only their good work but also to encourage implementation of strategies for improvement in Real Estate sector.
